On the Course

Etiquette

Think of others at all times and most importantly, be polite! Learn and follow the etiquette of golf.

Behaviour

Be courteous, thoughtful and friendly to other members and most importantly enjoy your time in the Clubhouse.

Slow Play

Play at a reasonable pace. Always be ready to play your ball, when it is your turn; do not spend more than five minutes looking for a ball; call players through if there is space in front of you and those behind are playing faster than you.

In the Clubhouse

Phone calls

Mobile phones can be carried on the course for emergencies and for distance/course planning. Please do not use them for any other reason.

Dress

Junior members are expected to be clean and tidy on the course and in the Clubhouse.
